Sex offers us the greatest opportunity for spiritual growth and it also offers the greatest blocks. Nothing in the course of human existence causes so much emotional response, gives us such an opportunity for growth and stirs up so much controversy as sex. Sex is a vehicle for great joy as well as despair. It can be a tool of torture or an instrument of gratification. It is used to inspire a poet and enrage a maniac. There is nothing distorts the mind more nor activates the soul as greatly.
